HAWAIIAN FISHERIES

The Move to Protect Finny Tribe.

ORGANIZERS FOREGATHER

Constitution and By-Laws Adopted to be Submitted to the Association.

The fishes of these Hawaiian waters have found friends who are to take an interest in their welfare and who are to plan and scheme and pay out good money for their protection and multiplication.

Yesterday afternoon the majority of the members of the organization committee of the association which is being formed for the protection and benefit of the Hawaiian fisheries, met together in the office of Henry Waterhouse on Queen street and adopted a constitution and by-laws. Mr. Waterhouse was chairman of the committee and G. P. Wilder was secretary. Other members of the committee present were H. E. Cooper, secretary of the Territory; Dr. Emerson, Wray Taylor, Col.
Fisher, Cecil Brown and Allan Herbert.
With very little argument and discussion the following constitution and by-laws were adopted. Secretary Cooper had prepared a skeleton and this became the will of the committee with a few alterations and additions. First of all it was argued that the name of the organization should be The Hawa-ian Fisheries Association. There was some little argument on the admission fee to be charged. It was spoken of as an initiation fee at first, but as there was to be no ceremony of initiation it was changed to an admission fee. Wray Taylor thought that if it was known as an initiation fee it might be supposed there was some ceremony attached to joining; that one might be supposed to ride a shark instead of a goat, or something of the kind.

The organization having adopted the constitution and by-laws will submit the same to the association at a meeting to be called by Secretary Cooper, who is the chairman of the association.

The constitution and by-laws as adopted by the committee on organization are as follows:

Constitution and by-laws of the Hawa-ian Fisheries Association: We, the undersigned, being desirous of preventing the wanton destruction of the food fishes living in the waters of the Territory of Hawaii, and believing that much can be done to increase the number of fishes fit for food both by the intelligent propagation of the species now living in these waters, and by a judicious importation of species from other waters, do hereby associate ourselves together for the above purposes, and do hereby adopt the following by-laws for the government of the association:

Principal Office—The principal office of the association shall be in the city of Honolulu.

Officers—The officers of the association shall be president, vice president, secretary and treasurer.

There shall also be an executive committee, consisting of the officers and named and three members of the association.

Duties of Officers—The president shall be the chief executive officer of the association; shall preside at all meetings, and shall perform such duties as are usual and incident to the office.

The vice president shall, during the absence of the president, have the powers hereby conferred upon the president.

The secretary shall record all acts and proceedings of the association, collect all dues and moneys of the association, paying them to the treasurer and taking receipt therefor, and perform such other duties as are incident to his office.

The treasurer shall receive all moneys from the hands of the secretary, keeping a correct account thereof and paying the same out upon the warrant of the president.

Executive Committee—The executive committee shall have general control and management of the affairs of the association. All applications for membership, and all other matters shall be submitted to the executive committee, who may approve or reject any application by a vote of the majority of those present.

Annual Meeting—There shall be an annual meeting of the association held at some proper place in the city of Honolulu on the second Monday of January in each year, ten days' previous notice of the same to be given by the secretary.

All members in good standing are entitled to cast one vote in the election of officers, and upon all propositions raised at the annual meeting.

Meeting of Executive Committee—The executive committee shall hold regular quarterly meetings at such places as may be designated by the president, and such special meetings as may be called by the president.

Quorum—A quorum of the members of the association for the transaction of business shall consist of not less than twenty-one.

A majority of the executive committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but no assessments shall be levied except by vote of two-thirds of such committee.

Membership—Any person may become a member of the association upon filing his application in writing, addressed to the secretary, by paying an admission fee of $5, and receiving a favorable ballot by the executive committee.

Dues—The annual dues shall be $5 a year, payable semi-annually.

Assessments—Special assessments may be levied upon the members for the purposes of the association when called by a vote of two-thirds of the members of the executive committee.

Suspension for Non-Payment of Dues—All members who shall be more than six months in arrears for dues shall be suspended by order of the executive committee.

Amendment to By-Laws—Amendments to these by-laws may be made at any annual meeting of the association at which there shall be a quorum present.

Your physician will be pleased if he sees that you have a bottle of the famous old Jesse Moore Whiskey in your medicine chest.
